FROM CLUB HOUSE TO GOD'S HOUSE

CINDY KURTZHALS

Pastor Luc Pierre at the new Béthel: Eglise Haitienne des Adventistes facility at 5431 Rio Grande Avenue in South Orlando. The former Universal Vacation Villa—the Club House—was transformed into Bethel—the house of God and a door of Heaven.

The building was an eyesore. Once called the Universal Vacation Villa Club House, it had been a popular night spot open nearly 'round the clock. Its earlier, legendary history included a gun battle with two individuals being shot to death there—one a local official. When tragedy struck, the rules changed—the building could become an apartment complex or a church.

When the Béthel French congregation purchased the location, they found it full of homeless people living in deplorable conditions in the skeleton of the premises. Drug dealers also found prey.

Today, the former Club House is transformed into a house of worship to a living and loving God by members of the Béthel: Eglise Haitienne des Adventistes du 7e Jour, Pastor Luc Pierre, construction crews, and the Conference church property development department. And, the transformation didn't come easy. Pastor Luc Pierre and members, wearing face masks, worked every Sunday for two months to clean the place just so they could stand to work in there as part of the demolition crew. Today, it is finished and they walk tall and wear broad smiles.

CLUB HOUSE TO GOD'S HOUSE

The 204-member congregation inaugurated their new facilities December 22, 2001. Church history includes members being organized into a church in Winter Garden, November 30, 1985, with then pastor, Jean Daphnis. Subsequently, they worshipped in the home of member Frank Celamy and several rented sanctuaries.

Church plans: there have been and will be evangelistic meetings, Bible studies and baptisms; premarital and marital counseling; classes on anger management, the prevention of domestic violence, parenting and child rearing; individual and group counseling; independent living skills for youth and young adults; family life programs; and leadership training.

The vision of the Bethel church is to develop a Christ-centered community where members become authentic disciples for Christ who bring other souls to the cross by the power of the Holy Spirit. Its mission is to invite people to Calvary through the preaching of the Gospel and the encouragement of people to live moral, social, and spiritual lives; and to promote true Christian education.

FOREST LAKE ACADEMY STUDENTS SING, PLAY, WITNESS, AND SHARE AT LAKE EOLA DAY

Students and faculty were ambassadors to 6,000 guests at Lake Eola, downtown Orlando, on Christian Education Sabbath, February 15. Music groups, individual performances, and testimonies were heard throughout the day from the lakeside bandshell, above. Students visited with passersby or handed out literature about the school and the Church. "It was one of the highlights of our school year," says Principal John Wheaton. "Even the concept of the day started with a miracle when city officials agreed to delay setup of the annual Shakespearean Festival so FLA could be there until 9 p.m."

The Forest Lake Academy Master Plan, voted by delegates to the September 24, 2000, Regular Constituency Meeting, continues to m-o-v-e through Seminole County and State processing procedures towards approval.

The Plan sailed through the first planning and zoning stages; then County Commissioners asked for several changes to the land-use section of the proposal. These requests were met in consultation with Glatting Jackson, the company contracted to oversee the Master Plan project. The revised Plan came before Commissioners in March, 2002. This time it passed with no opposition and is now in Tallahassee for final approval.

Randee Reynolds, Florida Conference treasurer, anticipates the green light by June. Then, steps can begin to redevelop the 276 acres which includes plans for a new Academy campus large enough to accommodate 750 students.

PATHFINDERS PUT THE GOSPEL INTO ACTION

Pathfinder leaders throughout the state began this 50th year of Pathfinding in Florida on an emotional high after learning that more than 500 young people in their ranks were among the 3,016 newly baptized members to join the Florida Conference family in 2001.

“What a great blessing it is to work with our Pathfinders,” says Michele Bissell, Ocala church member and eTracker director for Florida Conference. “I praise God every time His gospel touches their lives.”

—Martin Butler, Michele Bissell, Iris Rodriguez

MISSION TRIP TO HISTORIC ADVENTIST VILLAGE PLANNED

A mission trip for 7th-12th grade eTrackers and Varsity Pathfinders, is planned for June 13-23, 2002, at the Historic Adventist Village, Battle Creek, Michigan. They will help in the continued efforts to recreate the look, sound, and feel of the early Adventist movement and witness to visitors with stories of how God worked through early Church pioneers.

Applications for the mission trip: Florida Conference Mission America 2002, Pathfinder Department, 655 N. Wymore Road, Winter Park, FL 32789 or www.floridapathfinders.com

FRIEND REVELLE ADDRESSES ATOMIC ATTACKS

Lessons learned at Friend Reveille last fall continue to impact the 280 young people who met at Camp Kulaqua to the north and the Florida Keys to the south. Emergency preparedness seminars were among those taught, with spiritual aspects woven into the subject matter.

Because of September 11, the Red Alert Seminar on Atomic Emergencies was well attended. Practical survival tips were mixed with discussions of how God can save mankind from spiritual atomic emergencies. Anyone in an atomic emergency, if not killed instantly, will eventually die. Though sinners will ultimately die, God took our “radioactive sins” upon Himself so we may have eternal life.

eTRACKER PATHFINDER JAMBOREE

The first-ever eTracker Pathfinder Jamboree was held, February 5-8, 2002, at Pine Lake Retreat, Groveland. This new Pathfinder category identifies young people in grades 5-8. Other categories are: Adventurers, pre-K to 4th grade; Varsity, grades 9-12; and Master Guide.

Pathfinders were desiring a name specifically for grades 5-8 to distinguish themselves for the new millenium. The name eTracker was chosen.

The initial gathering at Pine Lake attracted 839 participants for Christian sportsmanship, devotional thoughts, a parade, and fellowship. The eTrackers also selected to support four mission projects, showing the young people’s willingness to give to others.

POWER SURGES: SOMETHING NEW FOR HIGH SCHOOLERS

Power Surge, a first-time, free event for Varsity Pathfinders, grades 9-12, took place in March and April. Both one-day programs included skills training, community outreach, seminars, social interaction, and spiritual renewal.

SUPER FUN DAY

This past November, 1,400 Adventurers gathered for Super Fun Day at the Cocoa Fairgrounds the Sunday before Thanksgiving. Every third year, club members come together from north and south Florida to enjoy camaraderie, activities, games, and chuck wagon food. The upcoming two years will find Adventurers meeting separately in the north and the south for Fun Days.

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL—WHERE KIDS CATCH THE BUZZ ABOUT GOD'S LOVE

The children's ministries team at Florida Conference believes Vacation Bible School (VBS) has a special place in the evangelistic outreach of the Church. Donna Williams, Conference children's ministries director, suggests that some of the reasons include:

1. God has a heart for children.
2. Children are the most winnable people group in the world.
3. A fun-filled, Christ-centered, VBS program brings more nonmembers to our doors than any other program. It really impacts the families of our community. When you take a child by the hand, you have touched the parent's heart.

Expressed in Spanish, Rebeca de los Ríos, Florida Conference associate children's ministries director, shares her thoughts on the importance of VBS:

Quando pienso en la Escuela Bíblica de Vacaciones de Verano pienso de esta manera:

1. Que es un proyecto no sólo para nuestros niños sino también para invitar y atraer a niños de padres no Adventistas.
2. Es un buen programa misionero que enfatiza el trabajo de evangelizar a la comunidad.
3. Es el mejor proyecto para cumplir nuestro lema, "Es Mejor Formar Niños que Reformar Adultos."

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL:

WHERE MANY HANDS MAKE LIGHT WORK

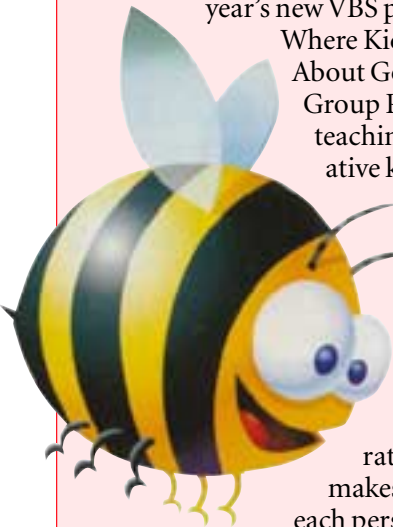

VBS is a ministry that takes many hands to be successful. Lack of help has been known to cause burn-out, discouragement, and even the death of VBS programs.

"When everyone has a little part, the entire program will come together beautifully," says Donna Williams, Florida Conference children's ministries director. This is the message Williams and associate directors Myrna Wright and Rebeca de los Rios, emphasized at VBS workshops in April at Camp Kulaqua.

Introduced during the weekend was this year's new VBS program, "Bug Safari: Where Kids Catch The Buzz About God's Love," from Group Publishing. Among the teaching tools in this creative kit are instruction manuals for those leading out in areas such as games, snacks, crafts, and Bible exploration. This makes it easy for each person to more effectively perform his or her part in the program.

"If you love to play with kids, prepare snacks, help children make crafts, creatively tell or reenact Bible stories," says Williams, "then you can be a part in making VBS a successful ministry to reach children and families in your church's neighborhood."

VBS VOLUNTEERS AT LAKE PLACID

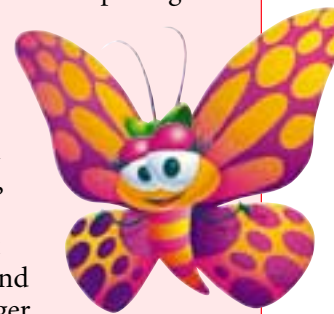

AN ANSWER TO PRAYER—STEP BY STEP

1. Dulce Tangunan, VBS director for the Lake Placid church, lost a key volunteer a few days before opening night in July 2001. She began to pray.

2. Brenda Lowder, who had been visiting the church for two weeks, heard an announcement about VBS and told a teenager that she would like to help. Word got to Dulce and she asked Brenda if she would take charge of the games.

3. Between 20-40 children enjoyed VBS each night. "Brenda had so much fun and did an outstanding job leading the games," says Dulce.

4. Meanwhile, Jonathan Smith, age 14, stopped at the church to ask if he could help. He came to VBS several years ago while visiting his grandmother who lives near the church. So, Jonathan, another non-member, served as a crew member while his two younger sisters attended. He was among the 36 volunteer helpers who carried a part of the load to make the VBS program a success.

STAFF CHANGES

MINISTERIAL FIELD REPRESENTATIVE

Conrad Duncan was voted as a ministerial field representative by the Florida Conference Executive Committee on January 29, 2002. He serves in South Florida for the Upper and Lower Gold regions, and replaces Abel Paulín who now serves as Florida Conference vice president for Spanish-language ministries.

Duncan has been as a pastor for 19 years, most recently as associate pastor of the Maranatha church in Miami.

NONADVENTIST NEIGHBOR INCLUDES CHURCH IN HIS WILL

From his vantage point as a resident of the Sunbelt Health Care Center in Zephyrhills, 91-year-old Seward Ellis watched as the East Pasco church across the street rose from its foundation to its full glory.

When he died on November 21, 2000, at the age of 93—less than six months after construction of the new church was complete—Ellis left a lasting legacy. Though he wasn't a member of the congregation, he enriched the lives of many by remembering the church in his will. A portion of his $98,000 endowment was used to purchase video equipment that enables the church to tape its worship services and broadcast them on Sundays from 9-10 a.m. on Shaw Cable, Channel 2.

"Funds of this sort are a blessing because they enable the church to fulfill dreams that are not otherwise possible," said Pastor Art Stagg. "His gift has given the church an opportunity to reach out to those individuals who may not be able to come to worship, as well as to give exposure locally to folks who may not know what Seventh-day Adventists are all about."

ZEPHYRHILLS—East Pasco Seventh-day Adventist Church is pleased to announce that their church worship service will be televised on Sunday mornings from 9 to 10 a.m. on Cable, Channel 2, beginning Feb. 3.

LEAVE A LEGACY: A LASTING GIFT TO YOUR FAMILY AND YOUR CHURCH

LINN HUFF

The Port Charlotte Adventist School received $18,666.67 to benefit worthy students. Principal David Bryant, center, and Port Charlotte church Pastor Dale Wolfe, right, accepted the check during the March 16 worship service. Florida Conference Estate Services Director José LeGrand, left, presented the estate gift on behalf of Nicholas and Janice Davies, former long-time Port Charlotte church members.

ALLEN BASSHAM

George Whitsett, left, Ft. Myers church pastor, was presented a $2,706.41 check on March 16 by Eugene Torres, Conference estate services representative, as a gift from the estate of Mae Dillon.

The Florida Conference estate services department staff of professionals are available to assist members' estate planning needs. A bequest to the Church can take a variety of forms:

Specific—

Provides that the Church or one of its institutions receives a specific dollar amount, percentage of your estate, or piece of property.

Residuary—

Made after all taxes, expenses, debts, and other bequests are paid.

Contingent—

Enables you to provide for the Church even if your primary concern is providing for your loved ones and only takes effect when your spouse or other heirs do not survive you.

In 2001, members blessed the Church with bequests totaling $292,300. Among the churches that benefitted from the blessing were New Port Richey, $44,574.69; Fort Myers, $2,706.41; West Palm Beach First, $26,706.23; and Winter Park Spanish, $4,121.55.

Checks presented to date this year include Port Charlotte, $18,666.67; Inverness, $6,914.06; and Jacksonville First, $7,765.66.

Another way to make a substantial gift to the Church is through a charitable gift annuity. With a charitable gift annuity, you receive a guaranteed quarterly fixed income for life, as well as a charitable deduction for the year in which the gift was made. In addition, a portion of the annual income payment is tax-exempt.

With proper planning, you can retain full use of your worldly goods during your lifetime and ensure that future generations will benefit from the blessings of your life on earth.

For further information on estate planning, or how to set up a charitable gift annuity, contact the estate services department at (407) 644-5000 x186 or 102555.1016@compuserve.com
